Let's Make Something Beautiful

What's the most valuable thing in your life?

You might say family or friends. You might say faith, love, justice, or joy. And you'd be right, of course. Each of these is a priceless gift from God.

But there's something else, too—something shining in the faces of family and friends, glowing in acts of love and justice, generosity and celebration. The beauty of the Door County forest, the shimmering water of Lake Michigan, the sunset over Sister Bay, the limestone cliffs towering over Green Bay. When we encounter it, we smile and say, "Ah, look! How wonderful! How beautiful!"

There it is: beauty.

Beauty is one of the most valuable gifts in our lives. God's beauty. Creation's beauty. The lovely, radiant goodness woven throughout the world.

Here at Shepherd of the Bay, our response to God's goodness is to give thanks for this beauty—and to make something beautiful together. We see the beauty of the Gospel in action, the beauty of Scripture and preaching, and the beauty of singing, learning, praying, and serving together. We see it in the Wonderful Wednesday Ministry to children, the Sanctuary Choir and Bell Choir, the generosity of your gifts to Klaud's Food Pantry. We see it whenever someone offers a helping hand, welcomes a stranger, feeds a hungry neighbor, encourages a child, visits someone who is lonely, or simply shows up with love.

Ah, look! How wonderful! How beautiful!

Over the first 3 Sundays in October, we'll be having a church-wide conversation about investing in this beautiful community—financially and otherwise—with boldness, generosity, and imagination.

And on Sunday, October 18, we'll celebrate together with grand festival worship service to celebrate God's goodness, our ministry, and your generosity. Mark your calendars! Between now and then, we invite you to think about these questions:

- What is most beautiful to you about Shepherd of the Bay?
- What moments make you grateful to be part of this community?
- What ministries bring you joy?
- Where do you see God's love shining most brightly among us?

We'll gather those reflections and celebrate our shared favorites at our Beauty Festival on October 18. It will be a joyful opportunity to remember what we love, give thanks for what we've built together, and imagine what beautiful things God may be calling us to create next.

Thank you for the radiance you already bring to this community. Every prayer, every song, every act of service, every gift, every word of encouragement matters.

This really is some of the most valuable work we can do together.

Let's give thanks. Let's dream boldly. And let's make something beautiful!

Pr. Jim Honig

All Saints' Day

This year, we will be observing All Saints' Day on Sunday, November 1st. It's a time for us to remember and honor those church members who have passed away in the last year, since Nov. 2025.

If you would like to pay tribute to friends or family members by having their names read in the service, please reach out to the church office at 920-854-2988 ext. 0 and leave a message or send an email to sotboffice@yahoo.com by Wednesday, October 28th.

Your participation means a lot to us as we come together to honor and remember our loved ones.

WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?

Jesus responded to a lawyer's provocative question:

Lawyer: "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus: "What is written in the law? What do you read there?"

Lawyer: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

Jesus: "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

And then came the crucial question:

Lawyer: "And who is my neighbor?"

(Luke 10:25-29)

Ah! What a good question! Who really is our neighbor? What are the qualifications? What are the descriptors? Do we have an easy definition of who belongs in the "neighbor" category?

Mr. Rogers had an easy explanation regarding the folks in his Neighborhood. He often sang:

"It's a beautiful day in this neighborhood. A beautiful day for a neighbor
Would you be mine? Could you be mine?"

It's a neighborly day in this beautywood. A neighborly day for a beauty
Would you be mine? Could you be mine?"

I have always wanted to have a neighbor just like you
I've always wanted to live in a neighborhood with you

Neighbors are people who are close to us. And friends are people who are close to our hearts
I like to think of you as my neighbor and my friend

Won't you please, won't you please? Please, won't you be my neighbor?"
(Fred M. Rogers)

Too many times we find ourselves divided by "us" and "them", isolated from potential neighbors by ideology, background, ethnicity, religion, political persuasion. We find it difficult to cross the historical barriers that divide us into specific groups and lazily accept "it's always been this way" as our excuse for not reaching out and embracing ALL of our neighbors.

There's a simple little song from my childhood that could perhaps help us break down what divides us, if we could only sing it together: "Make new friends, but keep the old. One is silver and the other, gold."

What is our purpose as members of Shepherd of the Bay? How are we to live in communion with one another? How do we erase the boundaries between us and embrace the bonds of friendship and shared purpose? If we believe what we have been taught by Jesus and yes, Fred Rogers, too, our mission in life is very clear indeed! We are each other's brothers and sisters, members of a wonderful family of Christ.

WE ALL ARE ONE IN MISSION

Rusty Edwards, Finnish Folk Tune

We all are one in mission; we all are one in call, Our varied gifts united by Christ, the Lord of all.
A single great commission compels us from above. To plan and work together that all may know Christ's love.

We all are called for service, to witness in God's name. Our ministries are different, our purpose is the same:
To touch the lives of others with God's surprising grace, So every folk and nation may feel God's warm embrace.

Now let us be united, and let our song be heard. Now let us be a vessel for God's redeeming Word.
We all are one in mission; we all are one in call, Our varied gifts united by Christ, the Lord of all.

Neighbors are people who are close to us. And friends are people who are close to our hearts
I like to think of you as my neighbor and my friend.

Won't you please, won't you please? Please, won't you be my neighbor?

Blessings to you in this new season of hope and community,
Judith Jackson, Sanctuary Choir Director and Principal Pianist

Youth and Family Ministry News

from Lynda Pietruszka 720-227-4079 or sotb.lynda@gmail.com

How about a play on words? FAITH is BE"LEAFING" in the unseen, but in all the many ways God touches our hearts; as we are cared for, as we serve others, as we forgive and are forgiven, as we worship in community, as the wind blows through the colors, and the crisp autumn air touches our face, as we hear the laughter of children and youth, as families gather for fall festivals. Welcome in a new season, nurture your faith walk. See you in Church!

Thank you to our Youth, parents, and church family for coming out to the Fall Bike Challenge Aid Station! We met some great people from the biking community, and we brought in $400.00 for our youth fund! Did you know? Our budget, and youth fund support all of our programs for Children, Youth, and Families here at Shepherd of the Bay. It also helps send our kids to camp and retreats, as well as offsets the cost for gas for the church van as we travel! Thank you church family, for all your time, talents, and financial resources for the faith formation of our kids! Come join us anytime!!

Calling All Soup Cooks

For many years, Shepherd of the Bay had a quiet ministry that didn't get a lot of attention, but was a valuable service to scores of people from our church and the community. It was our Soup Ministry. A handful of folks made sure that there were always containers of soup in the freezer that anyone could take for their own use or for a friend or neighbor. Who doesn't love to have a bowl of soup in a time of need?

That ministry has become a bit more sporadic and inconsistent in the past couple of years, and we want to revive it. Specifically, we are looking for an individual or a couple of folks working as a team to coordinate a team of soup cooks who would always make sure that we have soup available for anyone in need. We are envisioning a group of folks who would be sign of for a month. For that month, they would make a couple of large batches, bring them to church for packaging, and then place in the freezer.

If you are interested in helping to coordinate this ministry or sign up for a month of soup-making, send an email to Pr. Jim at sotbpastor@gmail.com.

Loaves & Fishes Northern Door County

A free dinner is served once per month on the 2nd Thursday of every month from 5 to 6 PM at Stella Maris Church in Sister Bay. For more information, call (616) 481-5274.

Thank you to our Youth, parents, and church family for coming out to the Fall Bike Challenge Aid Station! We met some great people from the biking community, and we brought in $400.00 for our youth fund!

It is the return of the ... Cut Up Club!

The original name, came from a small group of friends who got together around a kitchen table and spent the morning "cutting" out shapes and letters for our children and youth programs. Then it evolved into gathering for devotion, a light breakfast, followed by organizing supplies, filling treat bags, doing small, administrative tasks, writing cards, etc. We've even been known to deliver the task to your home if you are not able to get to the church building. There are tasks for all levels of physical ability. You might even make some new friends, and enjoy hearing all about what our children and youth are up to. If you need transportation, we'll find a way to take care of that too. See Lynda Pietruszka or Vicki Amundson for more details.

Klaud's Food Pantry

September was a wonderful month. The response to God's Work, Our Hands was overwhelming, and we were blessed with many generous donations that helped restock our shelves. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

As our pantry visit numbers continue to grow each month, we remain deeply grateful for the opportunity to serve our community. We also want to extend a big thank you to Grace Rossman and everyone who helped with the vegetable garden—we are thrilled to offer our patrons such a wonderful variety of fresh produce.

Starting this fall, we are introducing an "Item of the Month" for those who would like to donate specific goods. For October, we are collecting canned tuna and canned chicken breast. Please feel free to place your donations on the purple shelf in the narthex.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support of Klaud's Pantry.

Warmly,

Barbara Zage and the Klaud's Squad

Klaud's Squad Blessing

At the October 4th Sunday service, a special recognition and blessing will take place to honor the volunteers who manage Klaud's Pantry, the Klaud Squad. Edee Madsen, an early organizer of the pantry, will deliver comments about the early days of this vital ministry. Pastor Jim will provide his insights and a blessing. Please join us for this special thank you for the dedication and work of the Klaud Squad.

Next Meeting: September 21, 6:30

Greetings from Your Congregational Care Coordinator

In August we hosted an AARP Downsizing and Decluttering presentation, and in September we hosted an AARP HomeFit presentation- both designed to live more comfortably in our homes as we age. I have some HomeFit materials that I can share with anyone interested in going through the guide on their own.

As the calendar turns to October we are working on fall programs. We hope to schedule a “Senior Scam” presentation in October or November. On December 13 we will host the 2nd Annual Christmas Cookie Baking and Decorating activity following the Children’s Christmas Program. All ages are welcome to bake and/or decorate (or just eat??) cookies.

Several people have suggested the revival of the soup ministry. Simply, people make soup, we freeze and store it, then people take a pint or quart of soup when they visit someone who may enjoy a warm meal. As we prepare for winter this seems like a good idea, but we need someone to flesh out the ideas and lead the effort. If you feel called to do this please let me know.

Lastly, I have thinking about and prayerfully paying attention to what it means to care for each other. I have read several articles about care in the Bible and the one that most resonated with me said that Biblical care came in 3 buckets: God’s caring for us, people caring for each other, and people taking care of themselves (self care and rest). I’ll write about one each month in November, December, and January. For this month, I just want to share that I can see lots of caring for each other and caring for our communities- people helping each other individually, the impact of the various ministries we have, and people supporting community programs that make lives of people better.

If you or someone you know needs some help, please don’t hesitate contact me (Vicki Amundson) by email at sotb.care@gmail.com, by phone at 920-854-2988 (extension 3), or stop by the office on Tuesdays 10-4, and most Thursdays 1-4.

Lessons for October

October 4 : Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

First Lesson: Isaiah 5:1-7

Second Lesson: Philippians 3:4/-14

Holy Gospel: Matthew 21:33-46

Introduction: In today's gospel reading, Jesus tells a vineyard parable, which serves as an image of Israel, the prophets' mission, and Christ's death. For Christians, the vineyard also speaks of God's love poured out in the blood of Christ, given to us for the forgiveness of sin. Grafted onto Christ the vine at baptism, we are nourished with wine and bread so that we may share Christ's sufferings and know the power of his resurrection.

October 11: Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

First Lesson: Isaiah 25:1-9

Second Lesson: Philippians 4:1-9

Holy Gospel : Matthew 22:1-14

Introduction: In Isaiah we are given a vision of the great feast to come, when God will wipe away death forever. In Jesus' parable about a great banquet, those invited do not come, so the invitation is extended to others. In our liturgy God spreads a table before us. Even amid anxiety and hardship we rejoice in the peace of God which surpasses all understanding. With great joy we feast at the table of the Lord, and we go forth to share the wonderful invitation with others hungering and thirsting for the abundant life of God.

October 18 : Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost

First Lesson: Isaiah 45:1-7

Second Lesson: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

Holy Gospel: Matthew 22:15-22

Introduction: In today's first reading God uses the Gentile ruler Cyrus to accomplish divine purposes. When the Pharisees try to trap Jesus, he tells them to give the emperor what belongs to him and to God what belongs to God. To gather for worship reminds us that our ultimate allegiance is to God rather than to any earthly authority. Created in the image of God, we offer our entire selves in the service of God and for the sake of the world.

October 25 : Reformation

First Lesson: Jeremiah 31:31-34

Second Lesson: Romans 3:19-28

Holy Gospel: John 8:31-36

Introduction: Rooted in the past and growing into the future, the church must always be reformed in order to live out the love of Christ in an ever-changing world. We celebrate the good news of God's grace, that Jesus Christ sets us free every day to do this life-transforming work. Trusting in the freedom given to us in baptism, we pray for the church, that Christians will unite more fully in worship and mission.
